

From Good to Great

The only thing missing from this home is a little WOW. Owners agree to paint this 3000sf condo in Pelham NY. Paint now highlights the moldings, large windows and other unique architectural details.

Homeowners tried to sell before – on their own – with no success. This time they turn to an experienced Realtor who believes in the power of home staging.

From the first viewing, agents and buyers are drawn to this home.

“Just got home and saw the final changes. We love the touches – the artwork, baskets in the living room and blanket on the bed. You and [our agent] are certainly professionals. Now that the place looks so nice, I'm not sure we want to sell....just kidding. You really helped guide us in updating our home to sell. Thanks for everything.”
